Fairs

From Alaska to Texas, at both major state fairs, and small county fairs, we have provided headline entertainment, site acts, fun filled hands on workshops, and more. We have supplied entertainment to The Calgary Stampede, The Sacramento County Fair, The Northwest Washington State Fair, and Amarillo's Tri State Fair, to name just a few.

Festivals

Big or small, we are eager to help make your festival event fun.

Should you need a complete entertainment line up, including staging lighting and sound, or just a variety of activities, we can make it happen. We've worked with local and international festivals, such as The Singapore River Buskers Festival, Calgary Children's Festival, Wisconsin's Chocolate Fest and more.

Corporate Events

Christmas parties, team building events, product launches, and conventions are just a few examples of ways we have helped our clients. If you need professional entertainers to delight your guests, and create a memorable experience, call us for ideas.

Trade Shows

Themed stage shows designed to extend the visitors stay at the show, or intimate performances in your booth to attract traffic, and put your clients at ease.

Grand Openings

Make sure your first impression on your customer is a memorable one. We will work with you to design a program that can make your business look, and feel festive.

Special Events

Take your next event from ordinary to special. We bring ideas to the table for all occasions.

Celebrations

Birthdays, anniversaries, family reunions, weddings or what ever the occasion, we are pleased to be able to offer a variety of entertainment options. Be it a full stage program designed to focus your guests attention as a highlight of the evening, or a smaller discrete act that won't over power your socializing, we have lots of ideas to ensure your event is truly special.

What We Do

Schools

By combining our highly entertaining stage shows, with the opportunity to deliver a curriculum based lesson, or a motivational message, students will pay attention and hold on to the lessons being delivered.

Promotions

When you've made the effort to put on an event for your clientele, such as a stampede breakfast, customer appreciation day, or an open house, ensure that it's memorable, by keeping your guests entertained. We can provide a full line up of acts on stage, or just a few strolling performers to break the ice.

MEET OUR EVENT SPECIALISTS...

Since 1988 What Goes Up Juggling Productions has been coordinating entertainment programs for corporate events, festivals, and family events. Specializing in clean and wholesome entertainment, we work with events of all sizes.

Based in Calgary, Canada, we are run by professionals who bring years of experience to your event, both on stage and behind the scenes. When these entertainers were married, the size and scope of the company more than doubled, and their complimentary skills made What Goes Up into a serious provider of services to the entertainment field.

Connie Isaak combines her knowledge and experience from years in the accounting and administration fields, with her passion for entertainment. This fusion of business and art allows her to build events from the heart, while keeping the bottom line in mind.

Paul Isaak is a performance artist, Physical Comedian, and Speaker. He has worked with special events worldwide. He brings vision, and inspiration to events he works with, whether he's onstage, or working in an organizational capacity. To find Paul look for a guy with a wide smile, and endless energy.
